JURY WAS TO GET CASE LATE TODAY

Day in Circuit Court is Devoted to Arguments in Boaz Demaree
Conspiracy Trial

DEFENDANT LAST ON STAND

Maintains His Innocence, Declaring
Detectives "Planted" Things in His House

The case of the state against Boaz Demaree, which has been in progress here for over a week, was expected to reach the jury this afternoon about four o'clock, since evidence was concluded yesterday afternoon about four o'clock.

Boaz Demaree, defendant, was the last person on the witness stand yesterday afternoon. Following his testimony, it was decided that six hours would be required for the arguments, or three hours to each side.

The state, with Prosecutor Stevens, used an hour last night before adjournment, and this morning Gates Ketchum, for the defense talked an hour, and this afternoon at one o'clock the defense with George Bruce finished their argument requiring another hour and a half. The final argument for the state was made about two-thirty by Attorney Turner and the jury after being instructed would have the case.

Prosecutor Stevens yesterday afternoon touched briefly upon the case. He called the jury's attention to the appearance of Boaz Demaree, telling them to look at his white hands, unhardened by manual labor, and his face free from the appearance of the sun's hot rays.

This morning, Gates Ketchum for the defense, told the jury that "if Prosecutor Stevens was to be placed in the county jail for almost three months, he too would undergo a bleaching of the skin."

The defense maintained in the argument that the state did not prove anything against Boaz Demaree, in regard to the conspiracy charge. Ketchum dealt with the testimony of Carey Wayner, Big Four brakeman, and said that he never mentioned about the defendant in this case being implicated in the Dr. Dean or the hardware store robbery in Carthage.

"Wayner, according to his testimony," continued Mr. Ketchum, "was a printer by trade, and told you that he worked in a printing office at Elkhart, and even worked in a printing office in Rushville. He told you that when he was in Rushville, he lost his job on account of Dr. D. H. Dean."

Mr. Ketchum continuing, said: "And he told you that there were fountain pens being sold at the printing office that ought to be looked into. Then Wayner told you jury-men about the Dean robbery, and he at no time implicated the defendant in this case, but his brother Jesse."

The state in their arguments maintained that in a conspiracy case, no act of entering a house must be proven, but any act that shows concealment or selling of stolen articles is, they claim, justifiable for a conviction.

The last witness for the state yesterday afternoon was Boaz Demaree, defendant. In answer to all questions about taking part in stealing and selling goods, he denied emphatically to the jury that he was guilty.

He also denied that he was ever arrested before, and said that this was the first time he was ever arrested.

Demaree made his replies direct to the jury and addressed them as "gentlemen." He related his version of the affair when the officers were raiding his home and he came in, demanding what they were looking for, and what right they had in searching his house.

He said that he demanded to see the search warrant, which was refused him. He also denied that he used profane language upon entering but said that he was handcuffed. Demaree said, in speaking of the jury, "Gentlemen I admit that I did call Detective Neal a dirty—when he put the handcuffs on me, drawing

SAYS FATHER ABUSED HER

Complaint of Helen Jamison, Age
Fourteen, Leads to His Arrest

Chief of Police Wilfong arrested a man last night by the name of Jamison, who was living in a wagon north of this city, and his arraignment was to be given him this afternoon in police court at which time a charge will be placed against him. Jamison, who is not known here, has been making his home with his 14-year-old daughter in the wagon and was preparing to leave this morning for Missouri. The daughter yesterday complained to a member of the children's guardian board of this city, about being abused, and said that her father unmercifully whipped and beat her, and she was taken in charge, and made a ward of the juvenile court. It is said that some serious charges may develop against the man.

HAUGH CHILDREN PUT IN AN ORPHAN'S HOME

Judge Will M. Sparks Rules Neither of Parents is Fit to Have Their Custody

KELLERS ASKED NEW ORDER.

Judge Will M. Sparks has ruled that neither Mrs. Marguerite Haugh or J. Guy Haugh of Indianapolis, who were divorced in the circuit court here last May, is fit to have the custody of their two children and has ordered them sent to the Indianapolis orphan's home. The costs in the case were assessed against Mr. Haugh.

The questions of the children's custody was raised on April 9, when Otto Keller and Dr. Amelia Keller, both of Indianapolis, filed a petition for modification of Judge Sparks' decree in which the children were given into their care. They complained that Mrs. Haugh interfered with them until they could no longer continue to care for the children. Dr. Keller, Mr. Keller and Mr. Haugh appeared before Judge Sparks April 13 and presented their side of the case. Mrs. Haugh was unable to be present on that day, but appeared in court the next day. The matter was taken under advisement and Judge Sparks announced the ruling today.

Mr. Haugh was granted a divorce on his cross complaint by Judge Sparks. The case was filed originally in Marion county, taken to Hancock county on a change of venue and finally set here for trial.

Her Death—An Invalid
For 24 Years

TWO CHILDREN SURVIVE HER

Mrs. Julia A. Mulno, a well known and highly respected woman of this city, died at noon today at her home 220 East Second street, being in her 85th year at the time of her death.

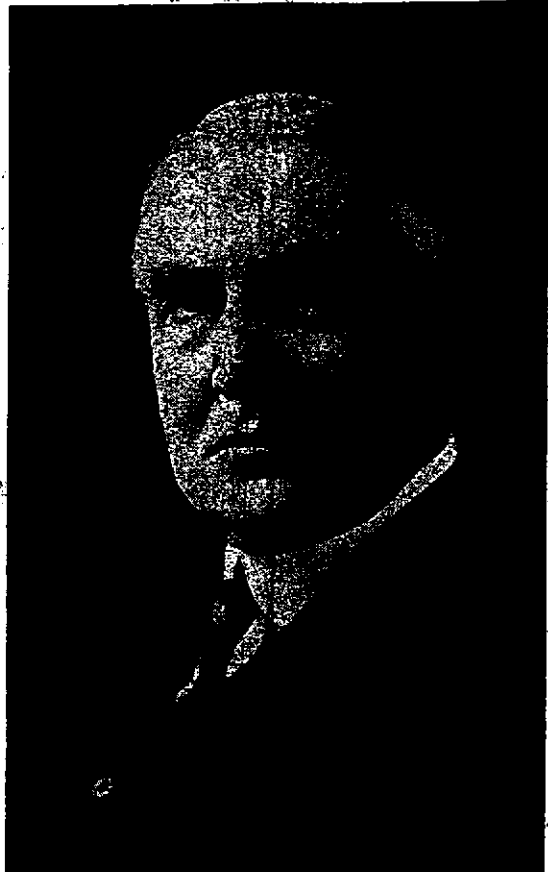

Mrs. Mulno was an invalid the last 24 years of her life, and on the night of the first of April, or three weeks ago tonight, she sustained a fall which, due to her old age, hastened her death. She was the widow of L. R. Mulno, who died here twelve years ago.

The Mulno family came to Rushville in 1869 where they have since resided. The deceased is survived by two children, Miss Fanny Mulno, who made her home with her mother, and William G. Mulno of this city. The funeral arrangements were not completed this afternoon.

POLICE LOOK FOR A NEGRO SUSPECT

Colored Man Seen Here Answers
Description of One Wanted in Indianapolis

SUSPECTED IN HUFF CASE.

His Queer Actions Cause Police to be Called But He Escapes When They Appear

A dispatch from Indianapolis this afternoon says William Ray, 19-year-old colored boy, is held in solitary confinement in Indianapolis police headquarters as the confessed murderer of Martha Huff, age 14, whose mutilated body was found in Eagle Creek near Indianapolis Tuesday afternoon. The confession he made does not account for his whereabouts after he left her dead body in the creek and it is possible Ray was in Rushville yesterday evening and returned to his home in Indianapolis last night, where he was arrested at midnight.

The police and seven deputies searched the entire city last night after a suspect in the murder case of Martha Huff, 14-year-old girl whose mutilated body was found in a stream near Indianapolis, and who was last seen alive with a negro.

Late yesterday afternoon a strange negro answering exactly the description of the one that is accused by the Indianapolis authorities of the murder of the girl, appeared in Rushville in the railroad yards.

He visited one of the stores in the extreme west end of the city, and obtained a lunch, and at this place he excited curiosity by his strange actions. He apparently wished to avoid people and especially glances that were directed at him.

Toward six o'clock he appeared at the C. I. & W. passenger station, and inquired about the time of the arrival of the next passenger train for Indianapolis. He continued his queer actions here, and he was asked by the agent what his business was in waiting for the train, the agent thinking that the man

PRIMARY TO COST MORE THAN $2000

Estimated That Expense Will be in Excess of This Amount, With 217 Officials to be Paid

ELECTION PLACES COST TOO.

Seven Members of Board Will be Employed in Each of 31 Precincts in the County

Even though the expense in connection with the primary election in Rush county Tuesday, May 4, will not be definitely known until the claims are allowed by the county board of commissioners, it is estimated that the cost will be close to or in excess of $2,000.

The expense would have been almost double this amount if the state board of election commissions had not decided that Rush county could use the original thirty-one precincts, instead of the fifty-nine created by the commissioners which were created in anticipation of the women voting.

The primary election law provides that the precinct boards must be composed of an inspector, two judges, two clerks and two sheriffs. The judges, clerks and sheriffs represent the two principal political parties. There are thirty-one precincts in this county and a total of 217 men will be required to fill the election boards. These will be paid $3 a day each for their services. One day is taken to mean from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. and as the vote is not counted until after the polls close at 6 o'clock at night, the members of the board usually receive compensation for two days. In addition the inspectors are allowed mileage for going to the court house after the ballots and for returning them to the county election commissioners after they are counted.

The compensation of the election boards is one of the principal items of expense but there are many others. In each precinct there must be a voting place and $5 is allowed to pay this rent. This means a total of $165 will be spent for this purpose. In addition the members of Atlanta, Ga., April 22.—The Georgia democratic delegation to the national convention has been assured for Palmer, according to returns from the state's primary election yesterday. Palmer will have 140 votes, Thomas Watson 130 and Hoke Smith 114.

Omaha, Neb., April 22.—Returns from 1,054 precincts of 1,849 in the state tabulated by newspapers gave the following vote on republican presidential preference in Tuesday's primary:

Senator Hiram W. Johnson, 41,753; Leonard Wood, 30,354; General John J. Pershing, 19,860; Robert Ross, of Lexington, Neb., 1,205.

FLOOD WATERS ARE RECEDING RAPIDLY

Figures From County Weather Observer Show Rainfall Was Double
Normal For Month

6.35 INCHES IN FIVE DAYS.

Flood waters were rapidly disappearing today and there is now small danger of damage from a flood even though the weather man's prediction of more rain tonight should come true.

Hodge's branch, which went on a rampage and flooded the northwest section of the city, was well within its banks today and the water which remained on the low ground was rapidly disappearing. The overflowing water from Flatrock was also fast receding from the river bottoms. There was still some back water standing today in South Julian street and South Perkins street. Many people were busy pumping water out of their cellars and the water in the basements of downtown business houses was several inches lower than yesterday.

There is small wonder that flood conditions did exist in view of the fact that the rainfall in this county from April 16 to April 21 inclusive, was 6.25 inches, which is nearly double the normal rainfall for the whole month, 3.31 inches. These figures are provided by Elwood Kirkwood of Manly, county weather observer. The greatest rainfall in any 24 hours during the period mentioned above was 2.24 on April 20. The minimum rainfall during the period was .14 on last Sunday.

BREACH BETWEEN THE ALLIED PREMIERS SEEN

French Believe Treaty Should be Enforced to Letter and Others
Favor Modifications

2 ALTERNATIVES FOR FRANCE

Paris, April 22.—Indications of a breach between the allied premiers in the meeting at San Remo were seen in newspaper dispatches here today.

French correspondents made no efforts to conceal the situation. On one side they said Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain favored modification of the peace treaty and asked France to pledge herself not to act alone to enforce the treaty in the future. British leaders were backed by Italy and Japan.

Among those opposing the British is Premier Millerand who holds to the French decision that the treaty of Versailles must be enforced to the letter.

"In view of the fact that Italy and Japan have agreed to support Lloyd George, the French have only two alternatives," one correspondent wrote, "to concede or quit San Remo."

The inter allied commission has recommended that Germany be allowed an army in excess of 100,000 men which is provided by the treaty of Versailles, according to a dispatch from San Remo.

A Hit-And-Miss Policy

Blame for the higher prices is placed by the operators and dealers upon the 27 percent wage increase awarded the miners by the federal coal commission. The miners, who are dissatisfied with the award, declare that the amount of raise in prices of coal is not warranted by the increase in wages.

The whole difficulty is traced back to the hit-and-miss policy in dealing with the situation. Fuel Administrator Garfield, before his resignation from that office as a result of friction with other government officials over the question, suggested to the President a plan for a 14 percent wage increase that could be absorbed by the operators without an advance in the price of coal.

Anxious to put a dramatic finish to the strike at all costs, Attorney General Palmer and Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, got together, ignored Dr. Garfield's plan, and drove a "bargain" with the United Mine Workers which resulted in the appointment of the coal commission. But the government did not stand by the commission for in adopting part of its recommendations and ignoring the rest it bungled into a settlement which now threatens to make worse the vicious circle of living costs to the American people by from $500,000,000 to $1,000,000,000 annually.

The government adopted the commission's recommendation for increased wages and a two year contract but refused the other vital suggestion that government prices be maintained until the coal shortage situation cleared. Government prices were taken of April 1, and the enormous jump in prices all over the country resulted. Here is the way it works out.

The normal annual consumption of soft coal in the United States is about 500,000,000 tons. An advance of $1.25 a ton amounts to $625,000,000 annually. The increase in production cost is only $200,000,000 for the entire 27 percent wage increase, or $104,000,000, if the Garfield 14 percent is absorbed by the operators. In other words, on an increase of $1.25 a ton, the coal interests increase profits from $425,000,000 to $521,000,000 annually.

Warped In The Making

If you pass a man on the street and he favors you with a growl or a scowl, you wonder if his stomach pains him, or whether it is simply the nature of the brute.

No, the Lord did not slip a cog, but some one else did. His nature was warped in the making. The sunshine of happiness was probably foreign to him in his childhood days. Instead of kind words he may have received harshness or neglect, for such natures, while possibly hereditary to an extent, are often the direct result of early environment.

A smile is better than a scowl, and if you keep this fact in mind you will be doing your own child an inestimable service, one which will do much toward shaping his career in after life.

PROFITEERING MAY LEAD TO INDICTMENTS

Evidence Regarding Potato and Coal Prices in Indiana Laid Before Federal Grand Jury

PROBE COVERS MANY WEEKS

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—Evidence which may lead to indictments under the Lever act for the enactment of exorbitant prices for potatoes and coal may be produced by the agents of the department of justice in Indiana, Charles Tigh, head of the state bureau of investigation, announced today.

For several weeks the department has been investigating the wholesale coal prices and the results of the investigations have been laid before the federal grand jury.

Tigh refused to predict the government's action on the coal price profiteering.

Regarding the potato prices, it was said that the prices have not advanced during the past week.

Wholesalers have reaped a profit of from 20 to 30 percent and the retailers have made a profit of 25 percent, he said.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. Your druggist has been appointed agent for Allen's in this vicinity with the understanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles to all who state they received no benefit.—Adv.

How would YOU like a raise like this?

— and for 34 Years Work

THAT is the kind of increase in salary the minister has received. His living expenses have risen just as fast and as far as yours.

But he is paid on the average just 52 cents more per church member than he was paid 34 years ago.

The Minister Never Fails You

Every officer of the Government with a war message to deliver appealed to the ministers first of all.

But 80% of the ministers receive less income than government economists figure as a minimum for the support of an average family.

When hospitals need money they enlist the support of the ministers—and receive it.

But when sickness visits the minister or the members of his family they must be treated in a charity ward. His pay is less than a day laborer's.

8 out of every 10 ministers receive less than $20 a week—about half the pay of a mechanic.

We Pay Him Half the Wages of a Mechanic

And of these pitifully inadequate salaries, how much do you contribute? Nothing if you are outside the church; an average of less than 3c a day if you are a church member.

All of us share in the benefits of Christian ministers to the community. They marry us; bury us; baptize our children; visit us when we are sick. In their hands is the spiritual training of the youth.

We Are All Profiteers at Their Expense

Part of the Interchurch World program is this—a living wage for every minister of Jesus Christ; an efficient plant, and a chance to do a big man's job.

If you want better preachers, help to pay the preachers better. It's the best investment for your community—and for your children—that you can ever make.

HOME MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.
Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.
Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.
Gargle the throat as directed and sniff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.
Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.
Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.
Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.
All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.
Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.

Thousands of Cases of Dyspepsia— BUT ONLY ONE PEPSINCO

PEPSINCO is the only indigestion remedy that we know—and we know lots of so called dyspepsia cures—that will almost infallibly relieve an attack of indigestion, food distress or gas. We could almost make claims that would appear impossible, so seldom does this PEPSINCO fail. But why not consider the recommendation of thousands of people who have used PEPSINCO, on the basis of their belief in it. Try it yourself; we are sure that the suggestion will appeal to you—you who suffer with indigestion or stomach faults—try PEPSINCO to-day.
Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.

Leonard Wood was born October 9, 1860, at Winchester, N. H., a town of 2,000 in the southwestern corner of the state. He attended the schools of the vicinity, doing college preparatory work at Pierce Academy, Middleboro, Mass. At 24 he had taken the Harvard Medical School course, from which he was graduated at the head of his class. He had intended to be a surgeon in civil life.

Two years later, however, he received appointment as a First Lieutenant and Assistant Surgeon in the United States Army. Right at the onset he saw action. Assigned to the medical staff of General Miles, he took part in the campaign in Arizona against the Apache Indians under Geronimo and Natchez. In that campaign he served as a line officer and surgeon and for his extraordinary services he several years later was awarded a Congressional Medal of Honor.

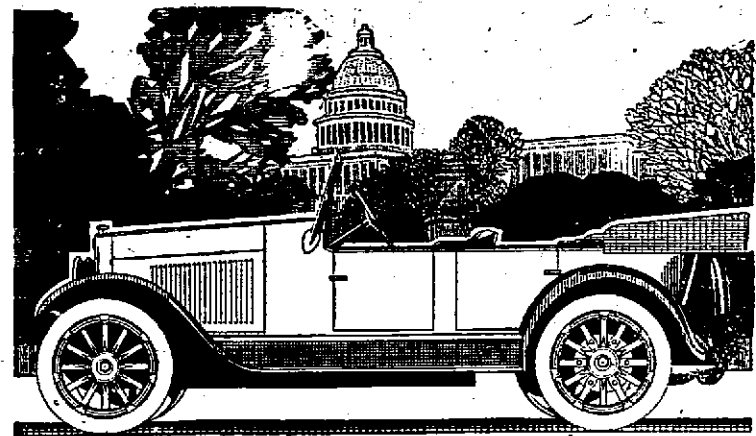

Wood was commissioned a Brigadier-General in 1898 for gallant and meritorious services at the battles of San Juan Hill and Las Guasimas. In the next year he was promoted to Major-General. He served as such for four months when he was mustered out of the volunteer forces and later was re-appointed a brigadier-general in the regular forces.

When the war was over, Wood was named by President McKinley as Military Governor of Santiago de Cuba and of Puerto Principe. In 1899 he was again made a Major-General and given the post of Military Governor of Cuba. General Wood served as governor of the redeemed island until 1902, when it was turned over by the United States to the elected President of the new republic of Cuba.

During Wood's regime in Cuba the unsanitary conditions in the island were corrected, the death rate reduced and a stable civil government established. Wood personally supervised the clean-up, which was done mainly by regiments of U. S. Marines.

Later Wood underwent an operation for a tumor on a lobe of his brain which formed after he had struck his head against a heavy chandelier that hung low over his desk at Havana. The accident, physicians said, has left no ill effect with the exception of a slight hitch in the General's step.

After leaving Cuba, General Wood was assigned to the Philippines where he was Governor of Moro

CHALMERS

Gets Maximum Power from Present Day Gas

OBVIOUSLY, the problem of gasoline is getting more and more serious, and obviously, too, gasoline is going down and down in grade.

Cars are not performing the way they once did.

Fuel experts say there is just as much power in a low grade "gas" as in a high grade "gas."

But the problem is to get out this power.

Hot Spot and Ram's-horn in a Chalmers perform this task.

Hot Spot heats and "breaks up" the heavy, raw particles of gas like water striking a hot stove.

A fine vapor "cloud" is formed, which is the very "food" the cylinders need, and while the "gas" is in that fine condition Ram's-horn rushes it to the cylinders.

The results are well known to those who drive a Chalmers. This action, "snap," absence of vibration are common to a Chalmers, but it has none of those troubles common to cars whose engines are not designed to accept and "digest" the low grade "gas" of the day.

Those troubles are hard starting, frequent fouling of spark plugs, burned bearings, scored cylinders, abbreviated mileage from "gas." Ride behind the wheel of a Chalmers and you will agree that it is one of the few great cars of the world.

assign to the command of the Department of Mindanao. His promotion to Major-General of the regular forces occurred soon after he had reached the islands. During his rule in the islands, the turbulent Moros were quieted, sanitation was improved and civil government placed on an efficient basis.

Wood was assigned to the post of Major-General commanding the Philippines Division in 1906 with headquarters at Manila. In 1908 he returned to the United States and was assigned to the command of the Department of the East with headquarters at Governors Island, New York City. In 1910 he went to Buenos Aires as a special ambassador from President Taft. He was Chief of Staff of the Army from 1910 to 1914. In the latter year he was re-assigned to command of the Department of the East where he served until 1917 when he was sent to Camp Funston to train the 89th division of the National Army.

At the beginning of the war with Germany Wood, with other Generals, went on a tour of inspection to France. He was permitted to stay but a few weeks, however, when he was ordered back to Camp Funston. While in France he was slightly wounded by the explosion of a big gun and became the only general of the American forces hurt in the conflict.

In 1918 Wood was put in charge of the central Department of the Army with headquarters at Chicago, where he is now located.

He recently was granted a temporary leave of absence from the army to conduct his campaign.
